

Take Action to Support Voting Rights

This digital resource serves as a companion to the Capital Jewish Museum's ongoing exhibitions and Community Action Lab.

Start the Conversation

- Why are voting rights being discussed in a Jewish museum?
 - What do you think are the best ways to expand voting access and why?
-
-

Take Action!

- Volunteer as a poll worker with Power to the Polls.
- Join the Capital Jewish Museum's Vote Forward campaign and write letters to voters to encourage higher turnout.
- Defend against misinformation, confusing voting rules, and obstacles to the ballot box at polling places by becoming an Election Protection Volunteer.
- Volunteer with the League of Women Voters. Volunteers can help register voters, canvass, become poll workers, and more.
- Call or write to Congress in favor of voting protections. Find campaigns through organizations like the National Council of Jewish Women, the ACLU, and the League of Women Voters.
- Volunteer with Black Voters Matter to help increase engagement and voting power in communities most likely to experience voter suppression.

