

Call for Submission for Young Artists

Have you ever wanted your artwork to be in a Museum? The Capital Jewish Museum seeks the works of young artists from the area to complement the upcoming Jewish Comics Experience exhibition! The Education and Curatorial teams will choose a selection of works from each age category for display. Additional works may be selected for digital display.

Selected Works must be:

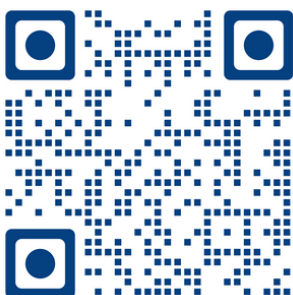

- Created by local young artists - age categories: 5-8, 9-12, 13-17, or 18-22
- No larger than 9 inches x 12 inches (landscape or portrait)
- Two dimensional in any medium (ink, paint, pencil, digital work, etc)
- Responsive to the prompt in a creative, unique way
- Appropriate for viewing by all visitors to the Museum.
- Submitted at this link or the QR code below between September 1 - October 14.

Prompt:

Create a story or scene using one of the comics templates below (or make your own).

How do you help repair the world?

Scan for Submission Link:

Questions? Reach out to Anna Barr,
Education Manager for Schools,
Youth, & Family Programs at abarr@capitaljewishmuseum.org.

