Honoring

NURIT BAR-JOSEF, LANNY A. BREUER, &
THE HONORABLE DAVID TATEL

The Lillian and Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum collects, preserves, and shares the diverse stories of Jewish history and culture in the National Capital Region. Through exhibitions and programs, we build connections across generations and communities, encourage reflection on the relevance of the past to today, and inspire civic and community engagement.

The Museum is an open, welcoming space for storytelling, connection, and dialogue across cultural communities in our city. We strive to connect the past to the present through thought-provoking exhibitions, a continuously developing collection, dynamic programming, and creative public experiences.

Inspiration for the 2026 Gala invitation and collateral comes from the floral motifs found on a late 19th-century pew from the Washington Hebrew Congregation at 8th and I Streets. The pew was generously donated by Brenda and Paul Pascal in 2008.

Honoree

NURIT BAR-JOSEF

Nurit Bar-Josef was appointed Concertmaster of the National Symphony Orchestra in 2001 (then the youngest such appointee to a major U.S. orchestra) by Maestro Leonard Slatkin. She was previously Assistant Concertmaster of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and Boston Pops from 1998-2001 and Assistant Principal Second Violin of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra from 1997-1998. She studied with Aaron Rosand at The Curtis Institute of Music and continued her studies at the Juilliard School with Robert Mann.

Ms. Bar-Josef's solo appearances have included the National Symphony, Boston Symphony, Boston Pops, St. Louis Symphony, National Philharmonic, and Britt Festival Orchestras, Mainly Mozart Festival Orchestra (San Diego), among others. An active chamber musician, she has performed at the Seattle Chamber Music Festival, Bay Chamber Festival (ME) and Aspen Music Festival, and festivals in Tanglewood, Portland (ME), Kingston (RI), Steamboat Springs, Garth Newel, and Caramoor.

She was a founding member of the Kennedy Center Chamber Players for nine years, as well as a founding member of the Dryden Quartet. Nurit also serves on the faculty of Pacific Music Festival in Sapporo, Japan (PMF America), the Taipei Music Academy and Festival (Taiwan), and participates in the Mainly Mozart (San Diego) All-Star orchestra.

Ms. Bar-Josef has been a featured guest on National Public Radio's Weekend Edition and has had the honor of performing at the White House with Maestro Christoph Eschenbach.

She has performed as guest Concertmaster for the Seattle, Houston, Pittsburgh, Boston Symphonies, as well as the L.A. Philharmonic. She has served as guest Principal Second for the Houston Symphony as well and was a member of the Carl Nielsen International Competition (Odense, Denmark) jury in 2019. Nurit plays on a Annibale Fagnola, 1908 (Turin) violin.

Nurit resides in the Washington, DC, area and enjoys long bike rides and hiking with her husband and two energetic dogs in her free time.

Honoree

LANNY A. BREUER

Lanny A. Breuer is Vice Chair of Covington & Burling and one of the nation's most respected leaders in public service and the law. The son of Holocaust survivors, he grew up in New York with a deep appreciation for the importance of justice and democratic institutions. From 2009 to 2013, he served as Assistant Attorney General for the Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, where he led major enforcement initiatives involving public corruption, fraud, national security, and international law enforcement cooperation, and received the Department's highest honor, the Edmund J. Randolph Award.

Earlier in his career, he served in the White House as Special Counsel to President Bill Clinton, including during the impeachment proceedings, and began his legal career as a prosecutor in the Manhattan District Attorney's Office. At Covington, he helps lead the firm's global white-collar defense, investigations, and crisis management work, advising corporations, institutions, and individuals facing complex legal, governance, and reputational challenges.

Lanny has long been deeply engaged in civic, philanthropic, and Jewish life in the Washington region. He serves on the Mid-Atlantic Board of the Anti-Defamation League, is a former presidential appointee to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council, and serves on the board of Washington Hebrew Congregation. His commitment to pro bono service includes representing the University of California in its challenge to the rescission of the DACA program, serving as counsel to a foster mother in one of the longest-contested adoption trials, and early in his career representing a U.S. Marine in a landmark challenge to the military's ban on gay servicemembers.

He earned his undergraduate and law degrees from Columbia University, where he now serves as Chair of the Columbia Alumni Association. He and his wife, Nancy, have two married sons and a granddaughter.

Honoree

THE HONORABLE DAVID TATEL

The Honorable David Tatel served on the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit from 1994 to 2024, succeeding future Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg. After graduating from the University of Michigan and the University of Chicago Law School, he served as the founding director of the Chicago Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law and then director of the National Lawyers Committee.

He headed the Office for Civil Rights of the US Department of Health, Education, and Welfare during the Carter administration and then founded and led the education practice at Hogan Lovells, where he is now Senior Counsel.

Judge Tatel has chaired the National Academy of Sciences committee on Science, Technology and Law, as well as the boards of The Spencer Foundation and The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching. Tatel is a member of the American Philosophical Society and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Tatel is the author of Vision: A Memoir of Blindness and Justice, (Little Brown, 2024).

Tatel and his wife, Edie, live in Virginia and Washington, DC. They have four children, eight grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

ABOUT THE HOST
NINA TOTENBERG

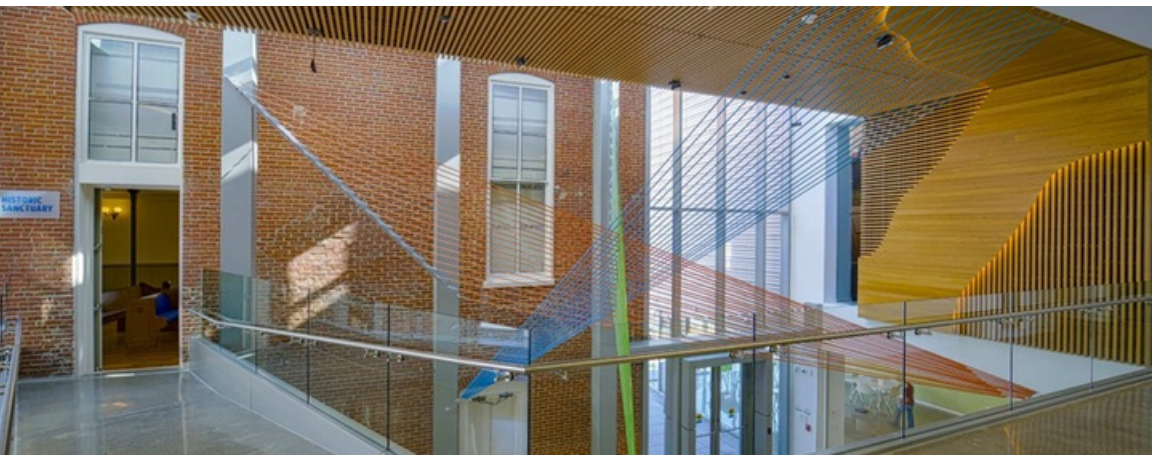

Nina Totenberg is NPR's award-winning legal affairs correspondent, whose reporting on the U.S. Supreme Court and legal affairs has made her one of the nation's most respected journalists. Her work is regularly featured on NPR's All Things Considered, Morning Edition, and Weekend Edition, and she has appeared in numerous documentaries examining the Supreme Court and the American legal system.

In 1991, Totenberg broke the story of University of Oklahoma Law Professor Anita Hill's allegations of sexual harassment against Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas, prompting the Senate Judiciary Committee to reopen Thomas's confirmation hearings.

NPR's coverage of the hearings, anchored by Totenberg, received the prestigious George Foster Peabody Award. Her reporting has also earned her the George Polk Award, the Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Silver Baton, the Sigma Delta Chi Award, and the National Press Foundation's Sol Taishoff Award for Excellence in Broadcasting.

Over the course of her distinguished career, Totenberg has been honored seven times by the American Bar Association for excellence in legal reporting and has received more than two dozen honorary degrees. She is also the author of the New York Times bestseller Dinners with Ruth: A Memoir on the Power of Friendships, which reflects on her decades-long friendship with Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

A frequent contributor to television and documentary programs, Totenberg has also written for publications including The New York Times Magazine, The Harvard Law Review, The Christian Science Monitor, and New York Magazine.

Greetings

Capital Jewish Museum

2026 Annual Gala

November 1, 2026

As Mayor of Washington, DC, I am pleased to extend greetings to the organizers, attendees, and honorees of the Lillian and Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum 2026 Gala.

Your event assembles community members and civic leaders to celebrate its mission to collect, preserve, and share the stories of Jewish communities across the greater Washington area.

Under the 2026 theme, "Preserving Our History, Building Our Future," this year's gala ensures that the Museum can continue to safeguard its past while building a future.

I offer my congratulations to your distinguished honorees, Nurit Bar-Josef, Lanny A. Breuer, and the Honorable David S. Tatel, whose accomplishments have enhanced quality of life for residents of the District of Columbia and beyond.

On behalf of the nearly 700,000 residents of Washington, DC, I offer my heartfelt thanks for your contributions to our communities and best wishes for a memorable 2026 Gala.

Muriel Bowser
Mayor, District of Columbia

STATE OF MARYLAND

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Wes Moore

November 1, 2026

Dear Friends:

On behalf of 6.3 million Marylanders, I am honored to welcome you to the 2026 Annual Gala hosted by the Lillian and Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum and congratulate each of tonight's incredible honorees, including Nurit Bar-Josef, Lanny A. Breuer, and the Honorable David Tatel.

The event theme, "Preserving Our History, Building Our Future," is especially fitting given the proud legacy of the Lillian Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum. This museum is the only institution responsible for preserving the rich diversity of Jewish life in the National Capital Region. It's your hands that have helped to strengthen bonds across generations, faiths, and backgrounds, foster civic and community engagement, uplift our young people, and remind us of our responsibility to realize the full promise of tikkun olam and build a future where hate has no oxygen.

The Moore-Miller Administration is your partner in the work. Maryland is home to over 240,000 Jewish Americans, each of whom are an integral part of the story of our state. As long as I'm governor, Maryland will ensure that everyone, including our Jewish neighbors, feels safe where they live, work, and worship. It's why we've delivered historic funding for hate crime protection grants, to stomp out antisemitism and build a future where all Marylanders can thrive.

Still, there's more to do. So let's keep up the work, and let's leave no one behind.

Sincerely,

Wes Moore

Esther Bubley

Photographing the Homefront

Immerse yourself in 1940s Washington through the evocative black-and-white photographs of Esther Bubley, the daughter of Jewish immigrants who documented everyday life during World War II. Paired with artifacts from the Museum's collection, her photographs capture students, soldiers, and boarding house residents in a bustling wartime capital.

On view October 22, 2026 – February 28, 2027

This special exhibition is made possible in part through the support of Special Exhibitions Circle members Richard Small Alper and Dr. Robert and Patricia Silverman, with additional support from Roselin Atzwanger and Eddie Lenkin; Marcella and Neil Cohen; Diane Lipton Dennis; Sue Ducat; Eli and Judith Lippman Family Foundation; Arnold Podgorsky and Christy Larsen; and the Stieber Family. Exhibition donors as of October 21, 2026.

"Know from where you came and where you are going."

—Pirkei Avot 3:1

To know where we are headed, we must have the courage to tell the truth about where we have been.

That's why we stand with the Capital Jewish Museum — and with museums across America protecting honest history. There is no more critical time to preserve Jewish stories and bring them into conversation with new generations and with the diverse community around the nation's capital.

We are proud to join CJM in honoring Lanny Breuer and David Tatel, whose dedication to justice and public service shows how the values carried through Jewish history serve all of us today. We celebrate Nurit Bar-Josef, whose world-class music lifts our souls beyond the present. Together, these honorees inspire us to both imagine and build a bright Jewish and American future.

Chazak Ve'ematz,

STACY BURDETT AND TOM DIAZ

Lanny's commitment to Jewish life and values is sincere and deeply rooted. The causes he supports are a reflection of his warmth, caring and generosity.
