Capital Jewish Museum Continue their Grand Opening Celebrations with a FREE Neighborhood Block Party on Sunday, September 10

For Immediate Release

Washington, DC, August 21, 2023 — The new Lillian and Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum will continue their grand opening celebrations with a neighborhood Block Party on Sunday, September 10, from 11 am to 3 pm. The event will take place on F Street, next to the Museum. Tickets are free but advance registration is encouraged.

Attendees are invited to “fall” in love with the Capital Jewish Museum as we mark the upcoming Jewish New Year with a block party featuring live music and workshops from the local band, Minnush, pop-up programs and social justice activities hosted by community partners, wares by artisans & makers, food trucks, a beer & wine garden, and more.

Minnush combines traditional Sephardic songs with contemporary elements of American folk, funk and jazz, creating serious, joyful, relevant, and fresh music.

Additionally, attendees will help assemble hygiene kits, during the event, to donate to Thrive DC for neighbors in need. Participants are invited to contribute items from Thrive DC’s Amazon Wish List, in advance, to support the project. A donation link can be found on the Museum’s event webpage.

The new Museum will also be open to the public, including the exhibition Notorious RBG: The Life and Times of Ruth Bader Ginsburg (separate ticket required).

ABOUT THE CAPITAL JEWISH MUSEUM

The Capital Jewish Museum explores the Jewish experience in the national capital region and inspires visitors to connect, reflect, and act—Connect personally and collectively, Reflect on the relevance of the past to today, and Act on behalf of their communities and values. With its experimental spirit, the Museum connects the past to the present through thought-provoking exhibitions, dynamic programming, and creative public experiences. The Museum has previously hosted other large-scale outdoor programs such as Sukkah City x DC (Fall 2021) and the Capital Jewish Food Festival (Fall 2022).
