

The Lillian and Albert Small Capital Jewish Museum
Education Intern
Spring 2024

INTERNSHIP DESCRIPTION

The Capital Jewish Museum is seeking an education intern to work as part of the education team.

Education interns assist with daily tasks that pertain to

- Assisting with new and ongoing public programs
- Developing digital and print educational resources for intergenerational audiences
- Creating social justice based educational resources, activities, and action opportunities for the Community Action Lab, our maker activation space
- The intern will also be trained as a tour guide

DURATION

The internship will be for the fall semester, September-December 2023, with the possibility of extension into the spring. This is an in-person internship requiring 20 hours per week. Hybrid options are also possible, but in-person hours are required.

COMPENSATION

The stipend for this internship is $1,500. College/University credit is also possible; interns will coordinate that with their departments.

REQUIREMENTS & QUALIFICATIONS

- Currently enrolled in or recently graduated from an education, public history, museum studies, museum education, Jewish studies program, or a related field
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Motivation and ability to work independently as part of a small but highly collaborative team in a fast-paced environment
- Experience working with kids and families in an informal education setting
- Familiar with DC history and the cultural landscape

SUPERVISORS

Lisa Del Sesto, Education Manager for Programs

Anna Barr, Education Manager for Youth, Family, and School Groups

To apply please submit a resumé and letter of interest to info@capitaljewishmuseum.org with the name of the internship (Education) in the subject line. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, November 15.
